Correspondence

There was no correspondence.

II. Old Business

- There was a discussion regarding the annual Spaghetti Feed and Auction being organized by Karen Hollingshead. Barbara Sexton had agreed to do the cooking, Laurie Courtney was making arrangements with the school, and John Hett had once again agreed to be the auctioneer. There were suggestions to acknowledge the Troopers, the National Guard, and the Sexton family at the event.
- Karen Hollingshead reported that surplus furniture was available from the Federal Government for 10% of cost, and said she would investigate the possibility procuring some items for the new Community Center.

III. New Business

- Gregory Nilsson read from a grant proposal by the Anchorage Ski Club for improvements at Arctic Valley, and requested a resolution from the council in support. Tom Whitstine moved that the council write a letter of support. The motion passed.
- Roger McRoberts at the Borough has inquired about the status of the Community Patrols, as illegal dumping was still occurring in the Butte area.
- Ted Cox stated he would write a letter agreeing with other community council's requesting resurfacing of the Old Glenn.

Ted Cox moved to adjourn at 7:44. The motion passed.
